RUSSIANS WILL BURN WARSAW

To Adopt Tactics of Progenitors When Napoleon Took Moscow

MEN READY FOR TASK

Villages Already Being Destroyed, Bridges Blown Up, Cattle Driven to Rear and Crops Seized

Berlin (via Amsterdam), July 22—Warsaw is to be set in flames by the Russians and destroyed when von Hindenburg's forces penetrate the last lines of defenses before the city, according to information that reached here today.

Grand Duke Nicholas is said to be determined that the Polish capital shall not fall into the hands of the Germans with its government buildings and churches unscathed. He is reported to have assigned groups of men to the task of applying the torch all over the city when the Germans close in and force his armies to evacuate.

The Russians already have begun devastating villages in the path of their retreat both north and west of Warsaw, and in the Riga region to the north, bridges are being blown up, cattle driven to the rear of the Russian forces, and crops either confiscated or destroyed.

Dispatches from Cojenhagen today quoted travelers from the Island of Gothland as declaring that flames from the Riga region have lighted up the sky above the Baltic for several nights.

NO PEACE TALK.

Premier Asquith Refuses to be Drawn Into a Discussion.

London, July 22.—A request by Sir William Byles, Liberal, in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon that Premier Asquith restate more definitely the essential objects for which the nation was fighting, in the hope that peaceful influences might result in these objects being attained by other means than warfare, left the premier cold.

"I stated these objects with as much definiteness as I am capable of at the beginning of the war and at the Guildhall," the premier said, "and I am unable to add anything to those statements."

Pressed to take under consideration the peace movement of the German socialists, Premier Asquith reiterated:

"I have nothing to add to the statements I have already made."

PET DOG SAVES MASTER

Grabs Bull by Nose as He is About Gore to Man

Pittsburgh, July 22.—F. O. Spotts, a wealthy business man of Tarentum, owes his life to the prowess of his pet bulldog, "Ben."

Spotts was passing the stables of H. A. Frey early yesterday, when a vicious bull broke out into the streets. Efforts to lasso the infuriated animal were fruitless, and Spotts, with several others, gave chase. Just before reaching Bull Creek, the animal turned on Spotts, who was leading the pursuers, and dashed for him with head lowered. Spotts dodged the first onslaught, but in doing so slipped and would have been gored to death in another minute had not his pet bulldog, "Ben" grabbed the bull by the nose, and despite all efforts to dislodge him, held on while his master got out of harm's way. The bull was killed.

Representative T. U. Sisson, of Mississippi, yesterday gave up a large quantity of his blood in the hope of saving the life of his nine-month-old baby boy. The transfusion operation took place in Memphis, and left Mr. Sisson very weak, and physicians said they feared the child would not live, in spite of its father's sacrifice. Mrs. Sisson died two months ago.

STRIKE SETTLED

The Men at Remington to Go Back to Work on Monday

Bridgeport, Ct., July 22—J. J. Keppler, vice president of the International Association of Machinists, who has been directing the strike of the plants of the Remington Arms and Ammunition Co., and various subcontractors, announces that a settlement had been agreed upon. He added that no more men would be called out, that the pickets would be called off duty and that the strikers would go back to work Monday morning.

New York, July 22.—E. J. Deering, business agent here of the International Association of Machinists, which precipitated the strike in the arms and munition factory in Bridgeport, announces that the strike would be carried to this city by calling out the machinists employed in the plant of E. W. Bliss and Co., unless their demand for an eight-hour day is speedily granted.

E. W. Bliss & Co. have contracts for the manufacture of the Whitehead torpedo used by the United States Navy, and although the men employed in this work enjoy the eight-hour day provided by federal law for government employment, the other employes of the plant are obliged to work nine hours, Deering said.

If the company did not comply with the eight-hour demand for these workers, employes on the government work would be called out in a smypathy strike, he said, involving 2,065 men. No demands for increased pay would be made. The company is understood to have contracts also with foreign governments for machinery for constructing torpedoes and for empty artillery shells which would be tied up should a strike be called. It was stated by Mr. Deering that the union had been seeking to induce the company to reduce its working hours for more than a year, and that the present situation was deemed to offer a good opportunity to enforce these demands. Action would be taken within a day or two he said.

RESUME RIOTS IN BAYONNE

Strikers Shot and Injured Following Attempt to Enter Plant

5,000 ANGRY WORKMEN

Police Unable to Cope With Situation —Governor Fielder Expected to Send Soldiers

Bayonne, N. J. July 22—Two strikers were shot and probably fatally wounded and several others less seriously hurt in an attempt by the strikers to scale the walls of the Standard Oil Company's plant here shortly after 9 o'clock today.

Bayonne, N. J., July 22— With several regiments of militia standing in readiness to answer a call from Sheriff Kinkead, Bayonne was still in the hands of the Standard Oil Company's 5,000 rioting strikers today.

This morning strikers set fire to the Standard oil telegraph office at Avenue J and Twenty-second street. It was shortly after dawn when the strikers renewed the disorder of yesterday. The few police who were on guard were utterly unable to cope with the situation. It is expected that Governor Fielder will order a regiment of the National Guard to the strike zone.

Bayonne was a city of terror last night. The strikers applied the torch to several outbuildings around the plants, and the fire department, wearied by strenuous efforts during the day labored all night to prevent the blaze reaching the oil and naptha tanks. A long string of box cars was destroyed.

Sheriff Eugene F. Kinkead and First Assistant Prosecutor George T. Vickers who talked to the strikers in an effort to get them to return to work, remained at the scene until 9 o'clock.

At 10 o'clock Mr. Vickers, who is also a lieutenant colonel in the Fourth Regiment, N. G. N. J., called Governor Fielder on long distance telephone. He told the governor about the seriousness of the situation and declared that it would be necessary to call out the guard today unless the trouble ends at once.

Sheriff Kinkead instead of going to his summer home at Deal, N. J., went to Sea Girt last night, and had a long conference with the governor which lasted until after midnight. He told the governor that it would be necessary in his opinion, to call out the State troops.

Bayonne, N. J., July 22—Arson, murder, and riot in the Bayonne strike districts has completely paralyzed the operations of the Constable Hook Oil Company and the Tidewater Oil Company, subsidiaries of the Standard Oil Company, and threaten the valuable properties with total destruction.

John Staranesah, a 19 year old boy, was shot through the head and instantly killed by a policeman last night when an effort was made to drive the infuriated men of the Constable Hook plant away from the gates of the Tidewater Oil Company. More than two score other persons received wounds from bullets and bricks during the rioting which continued throughout the day.

Just before midnight an attack was made on the pumping station at the foot of Twenty-eighth street. One of the main feed pipes through which crude oil is pumped to the several plants in the vicinity was severed and the oil ignited. The conflagration was declared to be perilously near a number of naptha tanks. A horse ridden by Police Inspector Cady was shot from under him and the officer was so painfully wounded as to necessitate his removal to the Bayonne Hospital. An automobile owned by G. B. Hennessy, general manager of the Constable Hook plant, which attempted to negotiate the distance between Ocean avenue and the plant along Twenty-second street, was completely demolished.

Mayor Pierre Garvin, of Bayonne, sent a telopraphic request to Gov. Fielder urging that a regiment of National Guard be sent to the scene. The request was temporarily refused because Sheriff Eugene Kinkead advised delay.

The strikers are in complete control of a district of several miles. When Mayor Garvin visited the district on an inspection tour several stray shots penetrated the hood of his automobile.

Shortly after nightfall, fires were started under a number of tank cars along the railroad tracks which skirt the two plants. It is considered certain the men will attempt to explode the big oil reservoirs if the leaders give word. During the day the office of the Tidewater Plant was set ablaze and destroyed.

The demands of the strikers for a 5 per cent raise in all departments of the two plants has been flatly refused by General Manager Hennessy. The men refuse to listen to any other plan.

Captain Latham has been ill at his home for several weeks, and for the last few days his condition has been such as to give his friends the greatest concern.

Captain Latham was 74 years old. He became a member of the Relief Company shortly after his return from the civil war and was active in its service up until January 9th, 1914, when he retired and was elected honorary captain for life. During the war Captain Latham was a member of Old Dominion Rifles, Company H, 17th Virginia regiment, and was discharged on account of physicial disabilities.

He was president of the St. Vincent de Paul Society of St. Mary's Catholic Church, a member of Fitzgerald Council, No. 459, Knights of Columbus, Alexandria Lodge of Elks, and R. E. Lee Camp Confederate Veterans. A meeting of Alexandria Lodge of Elks will be held tonight at 8 o'clock to take action on his death.

The Relief Hook and Ladder Co., will also meet tonight for the same purpose.

Catptain Latham was superintendent of gas of the city a number of years ago. He was for many years judge of elections in the second ward. He was a silversmith and watch maker by trade and was employed by H. W. Wildt and Son.

The deceased was a son of the late Hugh Latham, formerly mayor of Alexandria. He is survived by three sons, Frank W. Latham, superintendent of gas; Hugh Latham and Richard Latham, Jr., A sister, Mrs. Charles Steiner, and a brother, W. E Latham, also survive him.

MARRIAGE NOTICE

COUNTRY-WIDE STRIKE PLANNED

Men Will Be Called Out of Plants Manufacturing Munitions

WHIRLWIND CRUSADE

To Tieup Every Arms Manufacturing Plant in New England—Higher Prices and Shorter Hours.

Springfield, Mass, July 22—Not only in Springfield, but in Boston, Worcester, Hartford Chicopee New Haven, and Providence and in every other place in New England where war munitions are being manufactured, machinists' organizers are at work in the mills and factories, getting the machinist ready to make hay while the sun shines on the war munitions industry.

The members of the local organization committee of the Machinists' Union, sitting in conference last night with Frank B. Jennings, one of the seven vice presidents of the International Association of Machinists, and Daniel R. Donovan, chairman of the Springfield Labor Forward Committee, determined to make Springfield the second battle ground, after Bridgeport, in the machinists nationwide fight for higher pay and shorter hours.

Whirlwind campaign to obtain, if possible, a 90 per cent organization of the 4,000 or more machinists in Springfield and Chicopee, followed by the presentation to the big Stevens Arms and Stevens-Duryea plants now taken over by the Westinghouse interests, and to other plants engaged in the manufacture of war munitions of demands for an eight-hour working day and a minimum wage of 50 cents an hour, are embraced in the machinists' plan of action.

It has been arranged to have organizers start work at Wilmington, Del., also.

WILL NOT INTERFERE

Gov. Whitman Not Impressed by Becker's Plea

New York, July 22—After reading Charles Becker's plea and statement, Gov. Whitman intimated that he would not do anything for the condemned man or interfere in any way with the sentence of the court.

"Becker has told nothing new," was the governor's only comment.

Mrs. Herman Rosenthal, wife of the dead gambler, characterized Becker's statement as an an attempt to "build a house of cards," asserted that he alone had a motive for getting her husband out of the way and denied that "Tim" Sullivan ever had been a partner of Rosenthal.

In police circles Becker's statement was regarded as 'old stuff' long known to everyone on the inside, and it was not regarded as being helpful to the condemned man. This also was shared by the office of the district attorney.

The only possible hope left is that the statement may bring forth new evidence that will warrant an application for a new trial. This is very difficult, as it must be shown that the evidence is entirely new, that it was not known to Becker at the time of his former trials, and that if it had been presented to the previous juries it would have changed the result of the trials.

W. Bourke Cockran, Becker's counsel, was not very hopeful of ultimately saving the life of Becker, and when asked if he had any newly discovered evidence with which to apply for a new trial he replied that the question was not a fair one.

RUSSIANS JOIN IN PRAYER

Engage in Twenty-Four Hours' Continuous Supplication

London, July 22—Telegraphing from Petrograd the correspondent of the Times says:

"Novo Georgievsk one of greatest of the Russian fortresses, is effectually standing sentinel for Warsaw from the northwest. The range of its guns attains the Bzura line and the German advanced columns on the Narew. The fight for possession of the right bank of this river is expected to occupy some time.

"Evidently the last word has not been said before the Russians withdraw from their positions guarding the Polish capital but the public is prepared for the worst. Today, throughout empire millions of worshippers are joining in a prayer for victory."

The Daily Mail's Petrograd correspondent, telegraphing Wednesday, says:

"Yesterday evening the bells in all the churches throughout Russia clanged a call to prayer for a 24 hour continual service of intercession for victory.

"Today, in spite of the heat, the churches are packed. Hour after hour the people stand wedged together while the priests and choirs chant interminable litanies.

"Outside the Kamian Cathedral here an open-air mass is being celebrated in the presence of an enormous crowd."

FRENCH AIR RAIDS

Attack Railway Station Fifteen Miles From Metz

Paris, July 22—Thirty-one French aeroplanes participated in a great air raid on the railway station at Conflans, the war office announced yesterday. Bombs were hurled on several buildings, and the locomotive shed was seen to burst into flames.

Conflans lies 5 miles west of the German fortress of Metz, and is the junction point of important railways supplying the German armies around Verdun and Saint Mihiel.

Three German aviators, according to the official dispatches, made feeble attempts to attack the French air flotilla. Several French birdmen closed in upon the Germans and quickly put them to flight. In the chase one of the enemy's aeroplanes was shot down.

Zurich, July 22—Travelers arriving here from lower Alsace report that Monday's French air raid there did great damage to the military works. Several bombs exploded on a crowded troop train entering Colmar from Strassburg with frightful results. A goods depot also caught fire, but the flames were soon mastered.

With his money gone this morning at 7 o'clock Heibley went to the woman's door, and when she refused him a farewell kiss, killed himself.

PRESIDENT'S NEW NOTE TO GERMANY

Final Statement of United States Concerning American Rights

WILSON STANDS FIRM

Any Violation by Germany of Principles in Contention Will be Regarded as Unfriendly.

Washington July 22—President Wilson and Secretary Lansing, conferring at the White House last night, completed the new note to Germany warning Berlin that the repetition of a disaster such as that visited upon the Lusitania or any violation of American rights on the high seas, resulting in loss of American lives, will be regarded as "unfriendly." It will be dispatched today.

The note is in the nature of a final statement by the United States of the interpretation that will be placed by this government on future transgressions of American rights, and repeats that the American government will leave nothing undone to stand by the position it has previously declared.

Among the points in the new note are:

(1) The assumption by the United States that Germany, by declaring her submarine warfare to be a retaliatory measure against the alleged unlawful acts of her enemies, has admitted that the destruction of unresisting merchantmen without warning is illegal.

(2) German submarine commanders already have proven that they can save passengers and crews of vessels and can act in conformity with the laws of humanity in making war on enemy ships.

(3) The United States cannot allow the relation between the belligerents to operate in any way as an abbreviation of the rights of neutrals, and, therefore, any violation of the principles for which the American government contends, resulting in a loss of American lives, will be viewed as "unfriendly".

(4) The representations which the American government has made in previous notes for disavowal of the intention to sink the Lusitania with Americans aboard, and the request for reparation, are reiterated with renewed insistence.

(5) The American government realizes the unusual and abnormal conditions which the present conflict has created in the conduct of maritime war and is willing to act as an intermediary as between the belligerents to arrange a modus vivendi or and other temporary arrangements which do not involve a surrender by the United States of its rights.

(6) The proposals made by Germany to give humanity to American ships not carrying contraband, and to four belligerent ships under the American flag, are rejected with the emphatic assertion that to accept such suggestion would be to admit Germany's right to set aside the American contention based on fundamental principles in international law—that neutrals may travel anywhere on the high seas on unresisting ships of any nationality, even if carrying contraband.

The Alexandria County Lighting Company

VETO OF THE ORDINANCE

Mayor Returns Measure Granting Franchise to Chesapeake And Potomac Telephone Co.

Mayor Thomas A. Fisher has vetoed the ordinance passed at the last session of the City Council granting to the Chesapeake and Potomac Co. a franchise to operate a telephone system in the city of Alexandria for a term of 25 years. The franchise was granted after it had been advertised. The Chesapeake and Potomac Company was the only bidder and they agreed to maintain the present fire alarm system and to give the city the use of twelve free telephones for its various departments. They also agreed to lay 7800 feet of underground conduit during the life of the franchise.

Mayor Fisher in a communication to D. R. Stansbury, Clerk of Council, returns the ordinance without his approval in which he says:

"I am returning to the City Council without my approval an ordinance granting the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company a franchise for twenty five years.

"It is claimed by those who ask this concession of the rights of a city that the benefits acorded us are so liberal that we should not doubt the outome, so far as it effects the future, and it is the future that is affected by the legislation. I am not unmindful that the matter has been before committees who have considered the grants from its various aspects, and given it intelligent and careful study, yet, I have not been able to understand why in this age of improvement and intervention the city should chain itself in perpetuity to the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company. It must be remembered that it is this company which has been asking for the grant, and if the city is for all time to have its streets subjected to the dangerous and unsightly poles and wires used by railroad, electric company, telegraph and telephone companies, and private alleys used for overhead construction by these companies, the promise of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of a limited conduit system might be postponed until some efforts are made to rid ourselves of the wires and poles on the principal streets, costly as it may appear.

"In summarizing what is claimed we will receive as the result of this franchise I quote from a letter of Mr. Gardner L. Boothe to me, and do so in order that the public as well as Council appraise the price paid for the conession. Mr. Boothe writes First: That the rates for the twelve free telephones offered by the company to the City Council of Alexandria would be forty eight dollars ($48)) for each phone, so that the free phone service offered will amount to at least five hundred and seventy six dollars ($576) per annum. Second: As to the service which will be given the city under contract, to be used by it for fire alarm purposes, it is estimated that a similar fire alarm system would cost the city in the neighborhood of one thousand dollars ($1,000,00) per annum, making a total bid, if figured in dollars and cents, of at least fifteen hundred and seventy six dollars ($1,576.00) per annum. In addition to this, the company is liable to a license tax, which last year amounted to two hundred and thirty two dollars and forty nine cents ($232.49), and to a property tax, which last year amounted to three hundred and nineteen dollars and twenty four cents, ($319.34.)

"I will not comment on the forty eight dollars ($48.00) for each telephone, nor the estimated cost of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) for fire alarmy system; this is something that perchance all would not be of one mind. As to the matter of licenses and taxes it requires no stretch of the imagination to reach the conclusion that the telephone company pay only as do others in the way of taxes—viz., what is imposed by law. In conclusion you will remember I attached a memorandum dated May 18th, 1915, to this ordinance authorizing the advertising of the franchise, and allowed it (the ordinance) to become effective without my approval.

"I have hesitated as to what I should do in this. Not endorsing the legislation, my plain duty is not to approve it. In the memorandum to which I have just referred, the closing words were, and can be repeated here. 'Should the future vindicate the wisdom of the Council, then the credit belongs to them, and I shall feel no disappointment that we failed to view it (the franchise) in the same light, and evidently from a different angle.' "

Alexandria Officials And Firemen Impressed by Work of La France Pumping Engines.

The Alexandrians who went to Catonsville, Md., yesterday to witness the test of two La France auto pumping engines, returned home last night between nine and ten o'clock. The party went in three automobiles. It was composed of the committee on fire of the City Council—Alderman C. J. W. Summers, chairman, Alderman George Robinson, and Councilmen W. Desmond and J. T. Harrison; Kenneth W. Ogden, Captain of the Reliance; E. C. Wildt, Captain of the Relief; Richard J. Mumford, Lieutenant of the same company, and John M. Graham, J. D. Normoyle, R. L. Wenzel, and Harry Downham.

W. W. Withers, representative of the American La France Company, acompanied the party from Alexandria and explained everything in connection with modern fire apparatus which was tested.

The Alexandrians, while intending to witness the work of other auto engines fire engines, were much impressed with the operations of La France apparatus. The engines were made to rush up a hill steeper than Shooter's Hill at a speed of 36 miles an hour.

Baltimore county is utilizing nine of these engines, which are proving very satisfatory, and people of the section say they enjoy a low rate of fire insurance. One engine is being used over a radius of nine miles.

A resolution was introduced in the City Council some time ago appropriating money for the purchase of an auto pumping engine, which is believed to be needed now that the city's area has been doubled. This resolution is now pending before the finance and fire committees.

It is proposed to place one of the engines in a location so as to provide fire protection for the annexed territory.

EUROPEAN "COPPERHEADS"

During the war between the states in this country a political party arose which was termed, "copperheads." There were two wings to the organization. The majority were in favor of stopping the war at any price; the others were impressed with the claims of the Southern Confederacy. The party placed George B. McClellan in the field as their candidate for President, but he was defeated by Abraham Lincoln, who succeeded himself in 1865, and was assassinated about five weeks after his inauguration.

Europe has her "copperheads" at present. They pose as socialists in the countries now engaged in war. Despite the efforts of officialdom to muzzle these elements, they often "speak out in meeting" and cause embarrassment.

The ever-increasing volume of discussion of peace conditions in the socialists press is annoying the German government, which is taking vigorous measures to stifle it. Small newspapers as the Freie Presse of Elberfeld, the Arbeiter Zeitung of Remascheid, the Volk Zeitung of Dusseldorf and the Arbeiter Zeitung of Duisburg publish the common declaration that they cannot take part in a discussion of peace, as the censors before publication strike out all reference to it.

Those newspapers support the view of those who blame the government for the war and oppose all annexation. As the official social party praticalIy supports the government, its organs, the chief of which is the Vorwaerts, are little troubled by the censors. The government hopes by suppressing the newspapers of the dissident socialists to obtain more influence over the masses by means of the official socialist press.

The governor of Kiel has suppressed all newspapers in his district which do not preach a continuance of the war until the Germans conquer.

The Austrian socialists press is also beginning to attack the government. On Tuesday, in consequence, the Arbiter Zeitung of Vienna appeared with its first page entirely blank. This journal disapproves the war with Italy.

Not daring to say so openly, it is publishing a series of articles on Italy under Austrian rule in the last century, in which it shows the crimes and shortcomings of the Austrian administration and how these led to the successful Italian insurrection against Austria.

A socialist meeting held in London last night in support of the war, ended in a free fight to eject disturbers who, although small in number, made much noise.

A labor union official who just returned from the front was speaking when several men and women interrupted and urged that the belligerent nations should arrange a compromise. This the speaker opposed. Several free fights occurred in the body of the hall as the meeting ended.

THE CASE OF CHARLES BECKER.

Charles Becker, former police lieutenant of New York city has at last drawn near the shadow of the electric chair. At present it looks as though the law will be allowed to take its course and he will be made to pay the penalty for his complicity in the murder of Herman Rosenthal.

The condemned man has issued a statement intended to exculpate him from the charge against him but it has not appealed to Governor Whitman. That official has in no way intimated that he will interrupt the carrying out of the sentence imposed upon the former lieutenant.

The fate of Becker brings to mind many stories in connection with the peccability of police officials. According to Becker's statement, conditions in the great American metropolis are no improvement upon those existing a few years ago in Egypt. People who have traversed the Holy Land tell us that upon arriving at Cairo or other cities in the land of the Pharaohs it was necessary to make the acquaintance of captains of banditti who blackmailed the tourists. The visitors were promised protection when suitable amounts were collected from them. The Egyptian authorities received rakeoffs, it was believed.

Facts which have come to light since Becker's arrest and conviction are interesting. It is shown that the police force are on familiar terms with certain shady individuals n order to obtain information and aid in recovering property whch may be in the hands of thieves. This of course, means that what the looters, police and corrupt politicians do not want goes to the original owners.

Shortly after the civil war this state of things was said to exist in Washington. Certain detectives, all of whom have long since died, could recover any stolen property, and it seemed they were in collusion with the thieves. Of course the gross losses were never recovered.

PLETHORA OF STATUTES.

The Brooklyn Eagle, in printing a few of the unnecessary laws enacted in some of the states of the American union, says a federal act reviving the ancient and honorable office of foolkiller would be in order. The following are a few of the statutes whih appear in codes:

Minesota—Law to prohibit the catching of frogs.

Kansas—Law to prohibit the use of face powder, hair dye or bleach, the piercing of ears and wearing of ear rings.

Colorado—Law to compel chicken to go to roost before 7 P. M. daily. Providing that bulls driven along the roads at night shall wear lights..

Massachusetts—Prohibiting the wearing of whiskers by doctors and dentists.

Nebraska—Law compelling the National Guard to do ninety days' work each year on the roads and bridges of the State.

Texas—Compelling churchgoers to leave their artillery on the outside of church buildings.

Illinois—Forbidding the giving of tips to barber, porters, etc.

Minnesota—Law providing that lumberjacks shall be furnished with individual bathtubs.

North Dakota—Law establishing uniform thickness of sleigh runners.

In Massachusetts, a bill taxing bachelors $5 was adopted, and Illinois saw and raised the levy to $50 per annum.

MINIMIZING ACCIDENTS.

In a further effort to make "safety first" a reality not only in guarding the lives of employees and passengers but in protecting the general public, the Southern Railway has inaugurated a campaign to bring automobilists and drivers of other vehicles to a realization of the dangers of reckless disregard of human life at railroad grade crossings. During the fiscal year ending June 30, the Southern carried more than 16,500,000 passengers with only one fatal injury to a passenger while on a train, and this accident was due to the passenger standing on the platform of a car, in violation of the "saefty first" warnings. Not one was killed in a train accident.

During the same period twelve persons riding in automobiles were killed in accidents at public highway crossings, and according to the company's statement, each of these lives could have been saved had the driver of the car observed the caution signs. In all there were sixty nine automobile accidents at Southern Railway crossings. In addition to the twelve persons killed fifty-eight were injured.

The Washington Division of the Southern Rialway was originally known as the Orange and Alexandria Railroad. This road was operated over a third of a century before a passenger lost his life while traveling over the route.

A commission appointed to investigate charges of inhumane methods on the part of the Germans made a report in Moscow yesterday that they had employed shells with cast iron tips which were filled with prussic acid.

The peninsula and oriental line steamer Benalla, previously reported afire in the Indan ocean, is proceeding for Durban escorted by the steamer Otaki. The Benalla has 800 emigrants aboard. She was bound from London for Australia.

According to a dispatch dated "Northern France," the German crown prince had a narrow escape from death last week. The dispatch states that he was watching the progress of an attack through his glasses when a shell burst less than thirty yards behind him, killing two men, wrecking some supply wagons, and showering earth over the prince.

Theodore Roosevelt has delivered two addresses at Panama-Pacific Exposition. One of his talks was on military preparations. He held both willingness and ability to be soldiers to be desirable attributes of good citizens. He told the enlisted men "a man afraid to fight is not fit to vote," and "a mother who is not willing to raise her boy to be a soldier is not fit for citizenship."

Governor Whitman of New York yesterday commuted to life imprisonment the death sentence passed on Mrs. Madelina Ferola, of New York City, who killed her lover, Cameo Casatrella. A delegation of New York club women and suffragists called upon Governor Whitman and pleaded for the woman's life, and it was after listening to this plea that the executive gave his decision.

More than 8,000 miners returned to work in the South Wales coal field yesterday without waiting for their federation's official indorsement of the strike settlement. By tonight it is expected that if the strikers will be backed at their tasks. The terms of the settlement are regarded as highly favorable to the men and the general belief today was that it would be ratified by the federation practically without opposition.

Refugees from Trieste state that the city is in a terrible state of terror and that famine reigns. Supplies of vegetables and provisions brought in daily by peasants constitute the sole resources of the population, as all stocks of provisions have been seized by the military authorities. These are now seized at the gates of the city where supplies are brought by the peasants. The starving population is now given daily a small ration of flour and a little fruit.

Acting under orders of Secretary of the Navy Daniels, with the approval of President Wilson, the Board of Inspection and Survey for Ships of the Navy Department, is making a survey of all the American merchant vessels, with a view to their use by the government in the event of war. Every ship which flies the American flag is being taken into consideration, its tonnage, condition, speed, etc., noted, together with its availability as an auxiliary of the United States Navy.

Two Germans who were cabin passengers aboard the Dutch steamer Nickerie were taken off that ship by a boarding party from the British cruiser Isis, which stopped it today off Barengat. Capt. Van Borden reported upon his arrival in New York from South American and West Indian ports. Capt. Van Borden stated that after the Nickerie was stopped an officer and a body of marines boarded his ship and ordered everybody up on deck. They piked out Otto Kurz, who embarked at Curacoa, and Max Weintraunt from Port au Prine, and took them off, after which the ship was allowed to proceed.

It has became known that virtually all power to discipline for major offenses has been withdrawn from the authorities at the Naval Academy since September, 1913, and vested in the office of the Secretary of the Navy. Naval officers connected with the academy declare that tthe reason for this is found in sympathetic attitude on the part of officials toward political influence and that the result has been a serious relaxation of general discipline, culminating in the cribbing scandal of last May and June. Seretary Daniels declares that the change was made in the interest of discipline, because academy authorities were showing too great leniency in dealing with serious offenses.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY

NAVY YARD MACHINISTS.

Intimated That Strike Will Follow if Trouble is Not Settled.

The machinists of the Washington Navy Yard decided at a meeting last night to mark time until President Wilson gives his decision on the protest now before him, but if the decision is not satisfactory a strike will in all probability be called.

It was stated after the meeting last night that the alleged action of officials at the navy yard in marking at the top of the discharge cards of men now leaving, "quit work at a time when the government needed his services," has widened the breach between the men and the officials. The meeting last night was unusually large and the general conversation indicated that a strike is probable.

"If the men do walk out now," said one of the union officials, "it will take more than an 8 cent increase to bring them back. If they are forced to fight they will make the fight worth while. It is therefore to the best interests of the Navy Department that Mr. Wilson grant the men's requests."

Captain Edward W. Eberle, commandant of the Washington Navy Yard, yesterday denied in an interview with Secretary of the Navy Daniels, that the discharge cards of the men contained a red-ink inscription, "Quit work at a time when the government needed his servies," as charged by N. P. Alifas, president of the local machinists' union, in his interview with Secretary Tumulty at the White House yesterday.

GERMANS PERISH IN CANAL.

Bridge Destroyed And Teutons Drowned or Shot.

Boulogne, July 22.—Here is a graphic description of the latest attack by the Germans against the allies' position on the left bank of the Yser Canal, told by one who participated in the action:

"Despite the precautions taken by Germans, our commanding officer learned that the enemy was making preparations for a very heavy attack and as a result gave orders for the men to have everything in readiness for the reception of the Germans.

"Accordingly when the enemy at dawn Friday started to bombard us with gas bombs, we were everywhere on the alert. A massed infantry attack followed toward 9 o'clock, but it surprised no one. The Germans made their heaviest assault at the old stone bridge of Boesinghe.

"The water in the canal at this point is very shallow, and here and there it may be forded. The enemy managed to cross the canal and take up a footing—a very insecure one—on the same side as ourselves.

"The German commanding officer, greatly miscalculating his little initial success, ordered two battalions of infantry to advance and take the allies' second line of trenches, situated a short distance off. By this time the bridges across the water were streaming with German troops, who were coming to reenforce those already across the canal.

"Suddenly, as a large number of Bavarian infantrymen were coming across the Boesinghe bridge, the French brought a number of seventy-fives into action. It was not many minutes before the bridgeheads were brought crashing into the water below, dragging with them numbers of the enemy.

"All was panic in the German lines. Officers and men were struggling in the canal for their lives, and those who did not drown were shot down as soon as they crawled to land. The small portion of the canal that was fordable had by now been placed under the careful survey of four seventy-fives, and there being no bridge left the two German battalions on our side of the canal were completely isolated from the main party. By a brilliant counterattack with fixed bayonets the French marines and Belgians soon cleared our side of the canal of all the Germans. Those not killed or drowned gave themselves up as prisoners."

The encampment of the First Regiment, Virginia Volunteers, at the rifle range, Virginia Beach, yesterday, found the different companies hard at work in their work to qualify for expert riflemen and sharpshooters. The Third and Second battalions finished the slow firing at the 200, 300 and 500 yard ranges, despite the heavy downpour of rain which fell through the greater part of the day. The wind, which had a great deal to do with the records made Monday, had moderated considerably and the men were better able to hit the targets. So far the encampment has experienced no sickness and the order of work has been carried off in good shape. The mosquitoes have caused the men very little trouble and the heavy rains were drained off so as to cause no trouble.
